One Day Until New Year's Eve

New Year's Eve Ball Tested Before Official Times Square Celebration

In final preparation for New Year's Eve, the iconic Times Square New Year's Eve Ball will be illuminated and sent up the 130-foot pole atop One Times Square on Wednesday, December 30th from noon to 2:00 p.m.

Due to COVID restrictions, viewing times will be staggered for media, between 12:00 PM ET and 2:00 PM ET. Press must RSVP in advance to receive a specific call time. Check-in will take place outside on Broadway between 42nd and 43rd Streets.

Event co-organizers Tim Tompkins, President of the Times Square Alliance, Jeffrey Straus, President of Countdown Entertainment, and Michael Phillips, President of Jamestown, will flip the giant switch to initiate the spectacular, kaleidoscope lighting effects, illuminated by 32,256 energy efficient LEDs and enhanced by 2,688 Waterford Crystal triangles.

The Ball is capable of displaying a palette of more than 16 million vibrant colors and billions of patterns that creates the spectacular kaleidoscope effect atop One Times Square.
